

VACATION VOTE MAY COST BIG 6 CHARTER

International Officers to Act on Contention That It Was a Strike Order.

REPEATING IS CHARGED

Two More Magazines, Printed Out of Town, Appear on Sale on the Stands.

The legality of the vote taken by "Big Six" Sunday will be questioned by the executive council of the International Typographical Union at Indianapolis to-day. Under the I. T. U. law no local union can vote to strike without consent of its international oficers. If Sunday's vote is held to be a strike vote "Big Six" may face a penalty or even loss of its charter. It is also possible for the international officials to put a custodian in charge of the affairs of any disobedient local, thus taking the control out of the hands of the local officers.

Section 155 of the I. T. U. laws reads "It is imperatively ordered that no strike or lockout shall be deemed legal or money expended from the defence funds on that account unless the strike or lockout shall have been authorized or recognized as legal."

International officials were of the opinion yesterday that inasmuch as "Big Six" by referendum vote on October 6 repudiated the "vacationists" and ordered them back to work, the vote Sunday not to return amounts to a vote to strike.

Many charges of unfairness and repeating were made yesterday. The vote was the principal topic of conversation in printing circles. The newspaper composers and many of the more conservative job and book composers were loud in denouncing the local officers for not taking the ballot until 6 o'clock when most of the morning newspaper men had left the hall. On the ballot was printed: "This vote to be taken before 6 o'clock." The question probably will be brought up again at the meeting in the New Star Casino, 107th street and Park avenue, next Sunday.

The chapel choirmen of "Big Six" met in the union headquarters yesterday and voted unanimously to uphold the decision to continue the "sympathetic vacationists" and the weekly benefit payment of $15. The "vacationists" met in Webster Hall, East Eleventh street, and listened to speeches by Bernard Nolan and James J. Bagley, presidents of the two outlying pressmen's unions. About 2,500 were present. They showed no sign of wavering from their original $300-forty-four hour demand.

The December number of McClure's and the American Magazine appeared yesterday. They were printed out of town. Other publishers promise to have their Christmas issues out within the next few days.

BIG TRADE FIELD SEEN IN RUMANIA

Commission Shows Country as Self-Supporting.

Rumania as an unexcelled field for commercial and trade cultivation by the United States was the topic at an informal luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Bankers' Club under the auspices of the American Rumanian Chamber of Commerce. C. C. Orghidan, president of the Rumanian Government Commission, declared Rumania enjoyed a unique and dominating position among the States of Eastern and Southern Europe through the fact that she is at present entirely self-supporting.

Representatives of several of America's principal banking and manufacturing concerns were impressed by Mr. Orghidan's statements. He said: "Rumania has undoubtedly the most fertile soil in Eastern Europe. It is a producer of staple agricultural cereals which are exported to all parts of the world. At the present time Rumania has a considerable surplus of staple agricultural products available for sale to those countries which are in dire need of foodstuffs. We have, for example, at present 10,000,000 bushels of wheat, 6,000,000 bushels of oats, barley, rye, etc., 1,000,000 tons of petroleum as well as other products."

In exchange for her valuable crops, Rumania is anxious to obtain general merchandise, farm equipment and all sorts of engines for deriving steam, gas and electric motive power, Mr. Orghidan said.

Among those present at the luncheon yesterday were: S. R. Borton, Borton, Grice & Co.; Samuel Roberts, executive manager of the National City Bank; C. P. Coleman, president Worthington Pump & Machinery Company; Franklin Remington, president Foundation Company; Henry E. Cooper, first vice-president Equitable Trust Company; C. M. Muehlich, vice-president American Locomotive Sales Corporation; E. Thilston Wells, Consul-General for Rumania in the United States; and W. A. Joslyn, Dupont Export Company.

LABOR UNIONS IN CONFLICT.

Walkout of Textile Workers Results at Maynard, Mass.

MATNARD, Mass., Nov. 17.—Conflict between two labor unions caused a walkout of operatives from the Asahet mills of the American Woolen Company here to-day. Officials of the mills, who estimated that 20 per cent of the plant was involved, said it was a struggle between conservative and radical elements among the workers.

Operatives affiliated with the United Textile Workers of America have objected to alleged radical tendencies of a group of employees organized under the amalgamated textile workers and have demanded of the members of this group that they join the United Textile Workers.

Their walkout was said to be intended to enforce this demand. O. C. Drescher, agent of the mills, said no grievances had been brought to his notice, and that he would take no action in the controversy at present.

Mrs. Sanger's Appeal Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Supreme Court to-day dismissed without an opinion, for lack of jurisdiction, the appeal of Margaret Sanger on the constitutionality of the New York State "birth control" act. Mrs. Sanger was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment for conducting a "birth control clinic" in Brooklyn.

WAR TIME SPEECH BAN STANDS

Court Affirms Sentence of Man Who Assailed Draft.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—The individual right of free speech is subject to qualifications in time of war, according to a decision rendered here to-day by Judge Hook of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. He affirmed the eighteen month prison sentence of John C. Seebach of Red Wing, Minn., who had been convicted at St. Paul of having told men of draft age that they were fools to enlist and having said he would shoot his own son rather than permit him to go to war. His defense was that the right of free speech permitted him to make such remarks.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Five hundred employees of Chicago's leading photographers went on a strike to-day. They demanded recognition of their union, which was organized two months ago, a forty-four hour week and higher pay.

Arch Support Shoes

The Coward Arch Support Shoe has been widely imitated, but never successfully. No other shoe of similar nature assists the weakened arch to regain its normal condition so readily, no other gives the same buoyancy or ease of motion.

James S. Coward has devoted his entire life to the study of foot anatomy and because of his tireless efforts the Coward Arch Support Shoe has reached its present state of perfection. While primarily this shoe is one for correction and comfort, it is at the same time both shapely and beautiful.
